

NOTICE TO THE COMMUNITY

Victim Services Toronto is committed to safeguarding the health and safety of clients, staff, students and volunteers at all times. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic and recommendations of social distancing by all levels of government, Victim Services Toronto is modifying the way we operate as follows:

- All on-scene and/or in-person assistance to victims and survivors is suspended until further notice (including but not limited to: hospital, victim's home, shelter, or police facility).
- Victims and survivors can get help by phone: 416-808-7066. If you reach voicemail, please leave a message. All messages will be returned.
- Referrals from community agencies can be made by phone: 416-808-7066. If you reach voicemail, please leave a message. All messages will be returned.
- Toronto Police Service can make referrals can by calling the police dedicated phone number.
- While front-line staff and management continue to work at our office location, we are working to implement a plan to allow staff to work from home as soon as possible, while maintaining privacy, confidentiality and staff support and supervision.
- All T.E.A.R.™ workshops have been cancelled until further notice.

Thank you for your patience, understanding and cooperation.
